

Travel • Posted on Mar 30, 2022

People Are Sharing The Single Best Hotel They've Ever Been To, And I'm Taking Notes

Private pools, luxurious spas, balcony views...you name it, these places have it.

by Andy Golder
BuzzFeed Staff

Recently, we asked the BuzzFeed Community which hotels they've stayed at that they loved SO much, they want to go back. The comments were full of suggestions, ranging from homey and cozy to modern and posh AF. Here are 21 places to stay to add to your travel bucket list!

(Prices are estimates based on the current rates as of the time of publishing. Also includes submissions from this Reddit thread.)

8. Mohonk Mountain House — New Paltz, New York, United States

"The food is outstanding (and included with your stay); rooms are beautiful (I stayed in a room with a fireplace and a balcony facing the lake). There are lots of things to do (hiking, boating, spa, fitness classes, etc.), and lots of cozy places to relax. Expensive, but memorable!"

—adina1

Price: Rooms range from about $800–$1,200 a night, which includes three meals a day at the resort's restaurants, afternoon tea, and more.

Perks: Private beach; complimentary activities like archery, golf, and tennis; hiking trails; afternoon tea service; indoor heated pool; heated mineral pool