DATE	TIME	ENTERTAINMENT	DESCRIPTION
03/01/2023	9:00PM	Jervis McEntee and the Hudson River School of Art with Kerry Dean Carso	Join the founding editor of People.com Stephen Silverman, as he tells of the turning points that made the Catskills so vital to the development of America through his book "The Catskills, Its History, and How it Changed America". Stephen Silverman comes to Mohonk as a twenty-year veteran of Time Inc. and has had his work published in Esquire , Harper's Bazaar , The New York Times , The Times (London), Vogue , and The Washington Post .
03/02/2023	9:00PM	Unknowns... but Unforgettables with Bob Ulrich	From the American Revolutionary War, we all know the names and stories of Franklin, Jefferson, Adams, and Hancock - but these men never shouldered a weapon "for the cause." There were many "second tier" names without whose help, the war may well have been lost. To understand the challenges they faced and the risks they took, all for the cause of Liberty, we have to look to the back shelves of our history. Join Bob Ulrich as he looks into the stories of double agent Enoch Crosby, and the father/daughter team of Sybil and Henry Ludington.
03/03/2023	9:45PM	Soundsational DJ	Although the night is over in the Abba Dabba Club, the party continues downstairs! Sneak a libation from Mohonk's pop-up bar as Soundsational DJ provides us with the perfect soundtrack for modern dance. For more information, please visit: https://www.mohonk.com/events/wordgames-magic-mystery/mystery-weekend/
03/04/2023	9:00PM	Live Music: Annie and the Fur Trappers	Annie and the Fur Trappers is a St. Louis traditional jazz band featuring banjo, trombone, trumpet, and a washboard. With their repertoire ranging from traditional jazz, swing, ragtime, and delta blues, it will surely be an evening to enjoy! For more information, please visit: https://www.mohonk.com/events/wordgames-magic-mystery/mystery-weekend/
03/05/2023	9:00PM	The Gunks Ridge and Valley Towns Through Time	The Shawangunk Mountains—the Gunks—are renowned for stunning landscapes on and off the ridge in a region that has remained a favorite destination for visitors since the middle of the nineteenth century. Join professor and author Ronald G. Knapp as he takes a walk through time viewing the rugged topography with glistening grey-white escarpments, jumbled boulders at the base of cliffs, deep crevices, as well as precipitation-fed "sky lakes." Of the three magnificent Victorian hotels that were constructed in the northern Shawangunk Mountains in the decades after 1869, only the grand Mohonk Mountain House remains.
03/06/2023	9:00PM	The Bootleg Boom with Frank Marquette	In his spirited lecture, local theater director Frank Marquette takes you through the active role that the Hudson Valley region played in the bootleg route between New York City and Canada between 1920 and 1933. He'll touch on gangland distilleries, speakeasies, and the local "whiskey women".
03/07/2023	9:00PM	Native Americans of the Northeast with David Johnson	Join educator David Johnson for an informative and educational presentation on stone age technologies and survival skills. This lecture will also feature Native American artifacts and reconstructed tools.

03/08/2023	9:00PM	Bringing Back the Legend: Cougar Recovery in Eastern North America	Please join President of the Cougar Rewilding Foundation Chris Spatz for an insightful look at cougar recovery in Eastern North America. The Cougar Rewilding Foundation is a nonprofit organization whose mission is to rehabilitate the wild habitat and promote harmony between cougar and human populations.
03/09/2023	9:00PM	Mohonk History: A Trip Through the Archives with Peter Bidowski	Please join Mohonk's very own "Professor of Mohonkiana" Peter Bidowski as he takes a playful but accurate look at the early history of the Mohonk Mountain House. Using previously unseen photos from the Mohonk Archives and quotes from Smiley Family correspondence, Peter gives an intimate look at the time and events surrounding and influencing the discovery, purchase and building of the Mountain House. Peter has worked extensively delving into Mohonk history not only in the Archives but also at the Barn Museum, where old relics are clues to a rich and varied past!
03/10/2023	9:00PM	Frank Vignola Trio: Featuring Vinny Raniolo and Gary Mazzaroppi	Inspired by journeyman jazz guitarist John Pisano's now famous Los Angeles Guitar Night, this trio of virtuosos perform restyle tunes from the standard repertoire. Featuring acclaimed guitarists Frank Vignola and Vinny Raniolo with bassist Gary Mazzaroppi.
03/11/2023	9:00PM	KJ Denhert and the NY Unit	KJ Denhert is an award-winning songwriter, guitarist, vocalist and bandleader living in Ossining, New York. She is a consummate artist with a rich history; a legend of Urban Folk & Jazz who channels a wide range of influences to create something completely unique. She performs regularly in New York and around the world and has shared stages with internationally renowned jazz and pop musicians such as GRAMMY Award winners Alicia Keys, Roberta Flack and many more. The NY Unit features award-winning songwriter, guitarist, and vocalist KJ Denhert. The group leans into KJ's pop/rock influences and her vast repertoire of original music. KJ has garnered critical acclaim, earning numerous awards over a decades long career.
03/12/2023	9:00PM	The Amusement Park with Stephen Silverman	Join the founding editor of People.com Stephen M. Silverman, as he steps back in time to the "pleasure gardens" of Europe and ends with the rise and fall and rise again of the most spectacular playgrounds in the world. Highlights include the 1893 Chicago World's Fair to Coney Island, as well as Disneyland to Dollywood and Dubai. Stephen Silverman comes to Mohonk as a twenty-year veteran of Time Inc. and has had his work published in Esquire, Harper's Bazaar, The New York Times, The Times (London), Vogue, and The Washington Post.

03/13/2023	9:00PM	Lecture TBD	More details to come.
03/14/2023	9:00PM	Rock Climbing with Marty Molitoris	There's more to climbing than just going up! Marty Molitoris, Founder and Director of Alpine Endeavors and Multi-Certified Climbing Guide, will give an introduction to this physically and mentally demanding sport. Often testing the climber's strength, endurance, agility and balance, rock climbing can also take climbers to some of the most beautiful places on earth.
03/15/2023	8:30PM	Storytelling with Storyteller Laureate Karen Pillsworth	Karen Pillsworth has been enchanting kids and adults alike in the U.S. and Canada with her stories for over 30 years. Based out of Kingston, NY, Karen is a favorite at Mohonk Mountain House and has shared her stories on WAMC National Public Radio, as well as libraries, camps, parks, schools, historic sites, and festivals.
03/16/2023	8:30PM	How the Dutch Created America with Bob Ulrich	For years the British have taken the credit for starting New York City, but it was the Dutch who really began what is today one of the greatest cities in America. Come listen as speaker Bob Ulrich discusses how the America we know today got its start with the Dutch Colony of New Netherlands, in the city they named New Amsterdam. It lasted for only 40 years before the English took over, but those were very important years that laid the foundation for the diversity, tolerance and commerce that define New York City today. Bob will reference Russell Shorto's award winning book, "The Island at the Center of the World," a copy of which is in the Mohonk Library.
03/17/2023	9:00PM	Welcome Dance with DJ Gene Eagle	DJ Gene plays a great mix of the finest music for all styles of Social Ballroom dance, so get ready to dance the evening away! For more information, please visit: https://www.mohonk.com/events/music-arts/ballroom-dance-weekend/
03/18/2023	9:00PM	Dance, Dance, Dance with the George Gee Orchestra	With a powerful passion for jazz, George Gee brings the big band styles of Count Basie, Duke Ellington, Lionel Hampton, Benny Goodman, Cab Calloway and other legends to the Mountain! For more information, please visit: https://www.mohonk.com/events/music-arts/ballroom-dance-weekend/
03/19/2023	9:00PM	The Great Covered Bridges of the United States and China with Ron Knapp	Join professor and author Ronald G. Knapp as he tells the fascinating story of these bridges, how they were built, the technological breakthroughs required to construct them, and above all the dedication and skill of their builders. Each wooden bridge, whether still standing or long gone, has a story to tell about the nature of America at the time—not only about its transportation needs, but the availability of materials and the technological prowess of the people who built it.

03/20/2023	9:00PM	Ghost Stories of the Hudson Valley with Frank Marquette	The areas surrounding Mohonk Mountain House are riddled with historical figures and events that not only shaped its history but also influenced the nation. It is also home to many urban legends and famous ghosts starting with the Half Moon, the ship manned by explorer Henry Hudson in 1609. From New York City to nearby Highland, sightings of Hudson’s ghost ship have been reported for centuries. In his lecture, Frank Marquette will also recount the story of Lincoln’s funeral train. In the past 156 years hundreds of people have claimed to have encountered the train along with its whistle, smoke, and casket of Lincoln. Frank Marquette will also retell the stories of several other prominent people and locations that now appear in their ghostly forms.
03/21/2023	9:00PM	Let’s Visit an Art Museum: Van Gogh in Provence, France	Van Gogh produced more than 2,000 works in less than 10 years, before committing suicide (or was that murder?) at the age of 37. Join Wired Gallery Art Director Sevan Melikyan as he takes us on the footsteps of this beloved artist while presenting an alternate reason as to why Van Gogh cut his ear.
03/22/2023	9:00PM	Sacred and Ceremonial Stone Sites of the Shawangunk Mountains	Join David Johnson as he discusses the features associated with ceremonial stone landscapes that were constructed throughout the Shawangunk Mountains for thousands of years. Discover the stone features in the Shawangunk Mountains and find out how those found throughout North America, are very similar to ones found in Peru and Chile in South America.
03/23/2023	9:00PM	Mohonk History: A Trip Through the Archives with Peter Bidowski	Please join Mohonk’s very own “Professor of Mohonkiana” Peter Bidowski as he takes a playful but accurate look at the early history of the Mohonk Mountain House. Using previously unseen photos from the Mohonk Archives and quotes from Smiley Family correspondence, Peter gives an intimate look at the time and events surrounding and influencing the discovery, purchase and building of the Mountain House. Peter has worked extensively delving into Mohonk history not only in the Archives but also at the Barn Museum, where old relics are clues to a rich and varied past!
03/24/2023	9:00PM	Live Music: Cold Chocolate	Cold Chocolate is a genre-bending Americana band that fuses folk, funk and bluegrass to create a unique sound all their own. Led by Ethan Robbins (vocals/guitar) and Ariel Bernstein (vocals/percussion), the Boston-based group released their third full-length album, Down The Line , in the summer of 2020. Punctuated by tight harmonies and skillful musicianship, Cold Chocolate has quickly gained recognition for their original music and high-energy shows. The band has shared bills with Leftover Salmon, David Grisman, and Angelique Kidjo, and regularly performs at venues and music festivals up and down the East Coast.
