DESIGN:

Grove Lodge incorporates the highest level of sustainable technologies and materials to reflect the resort's tremendous respect for the land upon which it was built. The two-story lodge utilizes native stone, reclaimed wood, natural finishes, and sustainable materials throughout. A live-edged table made by local craftsman, Robert Dellay, stands at the center of the Great Room and serves as the perfect gathering space. Artwork from the Hudson Valley's lively artist community, including selections from artist Nora Scarlett's "Trunks in the Gunks" collection, lines the walls. Throughout the lodge, Dover Plains-based artist Hunt Furniture has crafted custom-made dressers and desks that perfectly complement the lodge's design.
