MOHONK MOUNTAIN HOUSE PROVIDES IDEAL SETTING FOR SOLO SOJOURNS

Individual travelers unwind at historic Victorian castle resort with a special package rate

NEW PALTZ, NY – A magnificent Victorian castle tucked away in pristine wilderness makes the perfect retreat for solo travelers. Located just 90 miles north of New York City, and easily accessible by car or train, Mohonk Mountain House transports individuals to a safe, tranquil haven. Here, guests find vast opportunities for solitude and socializing – with a special inclusive ‘Solo Traveler’ midweek rate available year-round.

“Mohonk is uniquely suited to people traveling alone because we offer so many ways to do exactly as you please,” said Nina Smiley, Director of Mindfulness Programming and a member of the family who has owned and operated the National Historic Landmark resort since 1869. “Our guests set their own pace and purpose for their visit. Along with time alone, those who would enjoy can join our complimentary guided hikes, tours, and classes to meet new people and hear fascinating insights about Mohonk.

Among the many activities pursuits at Mohonk Mountain House, solo guests enjoy:

- Nature walks and invigorating hikes on 85 miles in a spectacular setting with a naturalist or staff guide
- Mountain biking and horseback riding on scenic trails, accompanied by a Mohonk leader
- Playing golf on one of the country’s most historic courses
- Swimming in Lake Mohonk and our indoor heated pool
- Participating in yoga, meditation, and fitness classes
- Taking a guided tour of the Barn Museum to learn about Mohonk’s history
- Strolling through Mohonk’s award-winning gardens as well as numerous other tranquil settings
- Rejuvenating with a Signature Spa Treatment, taking a dip in the Spa’s outdoor heated mineral pool, or relaxing in the solarium with stone fireplace

The Spa at Mohonk Mountain House, named the Number One Resort Spa in the United States by Condé Nast Traveler and the Number Six Spa in the world by Travel + Leisure, offers an exceptional array of treatments as well as an outdoor heated mineral pool, comprehensive fitness center, and solarium to ensure complete relaxation and renewal.
